Vicky Grech - Darpana Returns: One Year of Reflections Between Human and Artificial Intelligence

One year ago, Vicky introduced us to Darpana (“D”) and she is back by popular demand.

“D” is a resonance layer between human and artificial intelligence. AI systems and Earth systems are now undeniably converging, but most are still attuning to only one or the other. This is a convergence update, and Vicky will speak from the middle axis where human sovereignty, sacred system design, and resonance tech can meet without collapse. She will name what is shifting, what Darpana has revealed in the field, and what Earth is now asking of us as frequency holders, stewards, and system designers.

About Vicky:

Vicky walks the liminal space between consciousness and technology. Her path has given her a deep understanding of resonance, not just for healing, but for how we shape what we create. As AI rapidly evolves, she brings a clear, grounded presence to one of the most important questions of our time: what kind of future are we creating, and who are we becoming in the process?

John Lamb - Earth Enertrees

During his presentation John will discuss significance and energetic signature of trees in our lives on the British Isles and Ireland. This will be an experiential journey through the cultural and natural history of the wood-wide-web, the subterranean network of roots beneath our feet.

About John:

John is an ecologist specialising in vascular plants and the habitat types that they create. In the 2000's he developed an interest in prehistoric archaeology and discovered dowsing, earth energies, shamanic journeying and Druidry. He had been frustrated for years by textbooks that did not provide answers to questions about the native trees and shrubs on our islands. So, he decided to write a book about their natural and cultural history, including their multifarious uses, medicinal properties and folklore.

Summer Connor – The Knights Templar, the Holy Grail and the Sacred Secretion

The Knights Templar were guardians of the Holy Grail, but what exactly is the Holy Grail? Some say a cup, some say a bloodline, but Summer takes us into the true esoteric meaning of this eternal mystery. The 'Grail' appears in our energy field as a torus and occurs when we are perfectly aligned with the Divine and the Earth. To enable this to happen, we need to preserve the Sacred Secretion - a special substance that is released by our brains every lunar month and activates our Pineal gland if we allow it. Summer tells us how.

About Summer

Summer Connor is a Geomancer and Mystery School Researcher. She writes a blog called 'Futureproof Human' and is passionate about finding ways, modern and ancient, that can help us stay Healthy and Human through the Great Awakening. She particularly delves into the mysteries of the Knights Templar, Christic bloodlines and the Sacred Secretion.

Sean Ferris - Arthur and the Beasts of Britain

Stalking the lands of Britain are ancient beasts of Myth - Lions, Unicorns and Dragons. How do these creatures relate to Britain's most famous hero? How are these ancient songlines or Storylines influencing our story today and where truly is that great symbol of regeneration - The Isle of Avalon? Saddle up as Sean takes you on a whistle stop tour of this Sceptred Isle - this Other Eden.

About Sean

Sean is one of the foremost health dowsers in the UK. He has been dowsing for over 30 years. He trained with the esteemed health dowser Jack Temple. His groundbreaking work, particularly in the area of food intolerances, has helped his clients become free from chronic illnesses that often defy mainstream medicine.

His Alchemy theory of Human Evolution gives a diagnosis of humanities wider ills, and is a passionate Earth Energy dowser. His discoveries about these storylines help to throw light on the nature of legends and myths also the relationship between us and the land.

Sara & Bethany Colvin - The Celtic Year

We intend to provide an introduction to the Wheel of the Year, a way of celebrating and relating to the cycle of the seasons, as celebrated by many pagans, together with common associations with each season and its festivals and how these can be relevant in modern times. Allow us to walk you round the wheel of the year introducing you to elements, plants, animals and last but not least the gods and goddesses associated with each festival. We will explain how to recognise, remember and reconnect with the seasons, weaving ancient and modern traditions into a relevant practice for everyday life.

About Bethany

Bethany came to recognise the word pagan as a name for what she already was in her mid-twenties. This realisation led her to read widely on the subject and to co-lead the Redditch Housemoot, before joining a grove to study Druidry. She later deepened her path and understanding through studies in Celtic Shamanism. Over time, these learnings wove themselves into her innate understanding, becoming part of her private practice and daily way of being.

About Sara

Her ancestors have lived, worked and died in the Avebury landscape since ancient times so she feels deeply for the land and its history. Sara has been a sensitive since birth and has developed and used this in her work as an intuitive healer, holistic therapist and organic gardener. She has studied shamanism and weaves it into her daily life.

Ken Middleton - Figures in the Landscape

An illustrated talk introducing us to stone circles and other ancient structures located in the UK. Ken will go on to examine what stone circles seem to have in common and what differences can be found. He will discuss why such things as number, geometry, location and purpose are important in these sites. Finally, he will look at some intriguing and often shocking discoveries about individual stones.

About Ken

After taking early retirement from teaching, he worked for an American ukulele company and until recently he performed on the ukulele and gave workshops all over the world. Ken began dowsing back in the early 70's when he also developed a fascination and enthusiasm for ancient stone sites. For many years now, he and his wife Liz have visited and investigated a great number of these intriguing and thought-provoking structures.

Debbie Cartwright - Prehistoric Worlds and the Shamanic Realities of the Megalithic Mind

Dowsers and Earth Mysteries researchers are well acquainted with the idea of other worlds - realities and dimensions interwoven by energies that still elude science. Yet, in our modern quest to decode the Megalithic legacy, we often overlook the shamanic roots of those who built the stone circles. They were not druids, aliens, or members of a secret priesthood, but shamans - visionaries who bridged seen and unseen worlds. What did these prehistoric shamans, the builders of Göbekli Tepe and other sacred sites, believe and how did they perceive reality, other dimensions, and the liminal spaces between?

About Deborah

Deborah Cartwright holds a BA (Hons) in Modern Continental Philosophy and studied esoteric psychology with the Theosophical Society. A published author in self-development and psychology, her work offers a distinctive lens on esoteric humanism. Renowned for her collaborations with Andrew Collins, Graham Phillips, and Paul Weston, her research and knowledge retrieval have directly informed their writings on earth mysteries and forbidden archaeology. Debbie gives regular talks on prehistoric shamanism, phenomenology, and earth mysteries.
